

Some Very Good Reasons for Joining an ASA Chapter

1. Provides the opportunity to network with other trades within the construction industry
2. Adds strength to the numbers of subcontractors who are working for a better industry
3. Gives members representation at the state and federal legislative levels
4. Provides information, through easy to read and understand publications, to help subcontractors operate more professionally and profitably
5. Saves members money through combined buying power for insurance, long distance, etc.
6. Provides someone to call for assistance on legal matters, OSHA, EPA, DOT, etc.
7. Provides for educational seminars on contracts, safety, dispute resolution, and more

ASA is a valuable information resource

Obtain practical information on the critical subcontractor issues of the day, effective business practices, and inside trends

Know the general contractor before you bid! Only ASA members gain access to a network of shared planning and payment histories for general contractors nationwide. ASA-Georgia has a Business Practices Interchange at every meeting

The Compass – ASA's national newspaper brings you important news for the subcontracting industry. Your subscription is included with membership. The Georgia Chapter also publishes a newsletter with local information.

Local branch and chapter meetings are an excellent opportunity to meet your colleagues from throughout the industry and exchange information about business skills, new ideas and technology.

Learn what others do to get paid, eliminate unnecessary retainage, etc.
